TO THE PLANTERS
IN MIDDLE AND SOUTHERN GEORGIA.

FOR TWENTY YEARS we have served you, we believe faithfully. Our success depends upon your prosperity, hence we have zealously sought to promote your interest and advanced it by every means in our power. As Commission Merchants, we again tender you our services at our old stand, which has withstood the flames of a burning square (thereby proving its security), and where we hope to merit the very liberal patronage always given us.

The sale of Cotton is our speciality. We flatter ourselves none can excel us. To old friends we return thanks; to new ones, we say try us, we will try to please you.

Usual accommodations given to enable you to make a crop. sep23-d3m

BROWN'S HOTEL,
(Opposite Depot)
MACON GA.

THIS long and well known Hotel, with its unequalled system, still presents itself to the traveling public.

The House was opened on the 1st of January, 1856, and took at once a prominent position among the "first class" Hotels of the country. It has never been closed since, but it has been steadily increasing in prosperity, till it acknowledges no successful rival in the business in the State.

Recent improvements and refurnishing of the House, which is still in the hands of the Proprietors, have left nothing to be desired by those who love their ease and enjoy the comforts and luxuries of life. The Hotel is admirably situated for the convenience of the travelling public, being situated opposite the Passenger Depot, and but a few steps from the same. It has a retinue of well trained servants in every department, and the Proprietors will spare no pains or expense to sustain the established reputation of the Hotel. Special attention paid to the wants of lady guests, who may sojourn at the House, and none shall go away dissatisfied, if an earnest endeavor to please will secure a liberal share of the public patronage. le16-tf

SPECIAL ATTENTION GIVEN TO COTTON.

Liberal advances made on Consignments to us for sale, or Shipment to our friends in Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York or Liverpool.

Wishing to aid our Planter friends in their efforts to secure for themselves the full benefit of their Cotton Crops, we have determined to make advances on Cotton consigned to us on the following easy terms:

On Cotton, for sale at discretion, advance seventy-five (75) per cent. of its market value, charging interest on the advance until the Cotton is sold at the rate of seven (7) per cent. per annum.

On Cotton, to be held Thirty Days advance fifty (50) per cent. of market value, charging the regular commision for advancing, 2½ per cent., and interest on the advance at the rate of seven (7) per cent. per annum.

On Cotton, to be [illegible] held Sixty Days, fifty (50) per cent. of its market value, charging commission for advancing, 2½ per cent., and interest on the advance at the rate of one (1) per cent. per month.

In all cases the advance will be based upon the market value of the Cotton on the day it reaches us. MERCER & ANDERSON.

Corner Prior and Hunter Sts.,

In sight of the Passenger Depot, and near the United States and American Hotels,

ATLANTA, GEORGIA.

WITH the advent of another Cotton Season, we renew to our friends and patrons the offer of our service in the storage and sale of their cotton. We have demonstrated the fact by the experience of past seasons, and particularly of the last, that Atlanta is one of the best interior cotton markets of the South. This is due chiefly to her situation; being on the direct route from the producing districts to the large seaport marts, and having the advantage of three routes to New York, via Savannah, Charleston and Norfolk, all of which are freely and satisfactorily used. The importance of Atlanta as a cotton market was, during the last season, acknowledged by the New York buyers, many of whom made extensive purchases, which with the local competition enabled us to realize the most satisfactory prices; relatively higher in most instances than could have been obtained by our consignors, by shipments to more distant points.

The members of our firm are all men of large experience in cotton, and well known in the community. Our Warehouse cannot be surpassed, being of large dimensions, completely sheltered, and fire-proof. Every money facility usual in such cases we are prepared to furnish.

UNITED WE STAND.—The Democratic party in the city have a decided majority, and it is the duty of every Democrat to use his utmost exertions to preserve that majority. The spirit of Radicalism hereabouts is too well understood to admit of a parley for terms. Remorseless in its greed for office, unscrupulous in its proscriptive practices, and revengeful in its malignity towards opposing minorities, nothing is more certain than that the party would run a full ticket, fill every office, and appropriate all the spoils, if it had a majority. We should hear no propositions for "compromise," "citizens' tickets"—nothing but the taunts and jeers of insolence and bloated bigotry. They have made issues with the decent people of this country which forbid any retrograde movement on our part. We have met them and beat them, and he who would offer terms to such a foe is unworthy the confidence and respect of his own party.—Every sense of duty demands that we should stick to our colors and support our nominees. He who falters now is faithless to principle. The only hope of the city Democracy lies in its strict adherence to to its ticket. There was no organized opposition among Democrats to the manner in which the candidates were selected. Every Democrat had a fair and equal opportunity before the various Ward meetings as well as in the general selection, of submitting his aspirations squarely to a majority of Democratic voters. This is exactly right. The party has expressed its choice. What more?

THE MALIGNITY OF GREELEY'S SCHOOL.—The subjoined article from the Tribune speaks the sentiments and feelings of Greeley's wing of the Radical party. We publish it to show how we are hated, and how loathingly and contemptuously are treated all our delicate approaches for reconciliation and peace. The noble impulses of General Hampton are sneered at, his patriotic motives construed into dishonorable trickery, and his manly bearing receives the coloring of cowardly cringing. We are but degrading ourselves when we stoop to the low estate of friendly intercourse with such remorseless malignity, and our self-respect demands that we make no more advances in that direction. We are likely to gain just as much by standing firm, erect, and proudly defiant, as by truckling to the haughty insolence of the vile underlings, and bowing in ignoble submission to their debasing demands. If any further propositions or appeals are to be made, let them be made to Cæsar himself, and not to the snarling hounds who insult our misfortunes, and outrage our lascerated sensibilities. We shall hold in contempt forever hereafter those who shall bow the suppliant, knee or whine with sugar coated tongues for a letting-up of the pressure. Let the worst come if it must. We prefer death to dishonor.

O, how mean, and how perfidious the heart that gave vent to this paragraph:

When Gen. Lee really found that Grant had reached Appomattox, and that Sheridan was in his front, he quietly walked up to that celebrated "apple tree," and surrendered his sword. The chivalric Virginian recognized an accomplished fact. Now that Grant is President, Gen. Wade Hampton "and a number of prominent Democrats, called in a body on Gov. Scott of South Carolina, and declared their determination to accept cheerfully and abide by the decision of the people, to stand by the State Government in its acts, and to use all their influence in inducing the people throughout the State to do likewise." This is wise on the part of Gen. Hampton. Like his commander, he also recognizes an accomplished fact. He knows when it is time to fight, and when to make peace. It is very well to keep the South in an uproar, and have the Ku-Klux Klan in every forest, perpetrating midnight massacres, and burning school-houses. These things are easy so long as President Johnson is at Washington, with Generals like Rousseau and Steedman in command. Gen. Grant in Washington puts another phase upon affairs. It is not safe; it is fighting at a disadvantage. It means life for life, and justice strengthened by the sword. Gen. Hampton thinks "that the future prosperity of the State depends upon a hearty and unanimous support of the Government." We think so, too. The ways of peace are open to these gentlemen of the South. They are ways of pleasantness, prosperity, and comfort to all, and the South sorely needs all the blessings and all the strength that can be given to her. The moral result of Grant's election is all that will be required to bring the South back to a hearty support of the Government. Gen. Hampton does a wise thing in acknowledging this fact so promptly.

THE VOTE OF LOUISIANA.—The result of the election in Louisiana, says the Macon Telegraph, is astonishing. According to a dispatch, it is as follows: Grant 26,542; Seymour 81,742; majority for Seymour 54,-100. In the Presidential election of 1860, Louisiana cast 50,500 votes, and has not probably increased her white vote since that time. This month she polled 108,294, showing an increase of 57,794 votes, the most of which were probably negro votes. We cannot lay our hands on the registry now to see what falling off from the registered vote the figures display, but it seems clear enough that the negroes generally voted, and many of them must have voted with the Democrats.

THE BANNER COUNTY OF GEORGIA—The Thomasville Enterprise says:

Brooks county is justly entitled to be called the banner county. Her voting population is 1,461, more than one half of which are colored. Of this voting strength she gave Seymour and Blair a majority of 1,145. All honor to Brooks. Had the other counties of the State as nobly done their duty, Georgia would have doubled her present majority for the Democrats. We have all done very well, however, and will make a clean sweep next.

There were, says the Macon Telegraph, several other counties which did wonderfully well, for illustration: Baker, 724—33; Banks, 105—0; Berrien, 614—19; Bullock 425—37; Columbia, 1,120—1; Coffee, 190—3; Dade, 310—18; Dooly, 850—32; Echols, 171—33; Early, 548—0; Elbert, 1,015—33; Jones, 423—0; Jackson, 1,055—264; Jasper, 873—5; Pike, 1,027—249; Pulaski, 1,955—213; Quitman, 312—53; Schley, 454—69; Stewart, 482—63; Sumter, 1,245—284; Talbot, 963—49; Tatnall, 452—0; Washington, 1,078—143; Wilkes, 1,332—86; Wilcox, 237—7; and many other counties too numerous to mention.—Add Brooks, 1,303—158, and we have an aggregate vote for Seymour of 18,423, and for Grant of 1,770, or 16,653 majority, and an average of 640 majority to the county.

THE DAILY CONSTITUTION.—Below we copy the contents of a circular issued by the proprietors of the above named paper. No paper in the State has labored more zealously for the cause of Democracy than THE CONSTITUTION, and its high-toned advocacy of its principles, should sustain for it a warm support from these mountain counties.—Mountain Signal.

We thank our worthy cotemprary for this approving note, sounded from his watchtower in the mountains. THE CONSTITUTION will always be found on the line as claimed for it above.

THE ERA OF GOOD FEELING—NEW ENGLAND AND THE SOUTH.—A correspondent of the Richmond Enquirer and Examiner, writing from Boston under date of 5th inst., says:

Now that Grant is elected, all the fears the North may have entertained about the South vanish, and a purpose will develop itself wholly friendly and of an encouraging nature. The North now means business South, by the infusion of capital and emigration. The West must divide its claims to surplus population of the Atlantic cities with the South.

The signs of the times are favorable to the South Now that the struggle for President is over, let by-gones be by-gones. We believe that is a prominent feeling here in New England. We shall be disappointed very much if the Grant administration acts otherwise than generously toward the entire South. We believe that will be a strong feature in it, and are quite sure New England will back up that feeling, with actions corresponding thereto.

THE AIR-LINE RAILWAY FROM WASHINGTON TO NEW YORK.—A special correspondent of the Baltimore Gazette, writing from Washington under date of November 12, says:

It would seem from the proceedings today in the meeting of prominent capitalists of the District, that the project for an air-line road has by no means been abandoned. It is proposed to have a direct road between here and New York, and to connect the Valley of Virginia and the West generally with the Potomac by rail. The men who have started this movement are in earnest, and it is estimated that a large amount can be raised within this city alone for the purpose of carrying out any plan the committee may propose.

"LET US BE FRIENDS."—Under this caption the Chicago Times, a leading Democratic journal in the Northwest, says:

In Hartford, Connecticut, the supporters of Mr. Grant celebrated their victory by a torchlight procession. The Democratic club of Hartford joined the procession, bearing a banner with the inscription, "Let us be friends."

This is a sentiment that animates, and has always animated the Democracy in all parts of the country: "Though we differ in our views of policy, let us be friends in supporting the principles that constitute the foundation of our political liberties." When the civil war was over, the Democracy said to the extremists of all sections, "Let us be friends."

What did the extremists in the North say in reply? They said, "No. Let us continue to be enemies. As for us, we will not shake hands with men who have fought us. We will continue to nurse our hatreds."

There is a passage somewhere in a good book that some men profess great respect for, which tells us that brethren ought to dwell together in unity. The Democracy subscribe to that doctrine heartily; but the Radical extremists repudiate it. The sentiment, they say, is all wrong. Brethren ought to dwell together like cats and dogs, unless the weaker brethren will submit to any wrong that the stronger may choose to put upon them, and to which the stronger, on their part, refuse to submit.

The sentiments of the Hartford Democratic club is the sentiment of three millions of Democratic voters. We desire nothing but the good of our country. It is ours, as well as yours. We must live in it together. We desire to preserve for ourselves and our posterity the liberties it secures. We will presume, until you prove the contrary, that your desires are the same. Let us be friends on this broad national platform. Let us stand together in the jealous guardianship of our liberties. Whoever threatens danger or overthrow to these liberties—be he President or Congressmen; be he politician or priest—let us defend them against. We have had disfranchisement and confiscation enough. We have had slander and detraction and denunciation and hatred and revenge enough. We have had misery and death and devastation enough. We have had enmities between us enough. Let us have amnesty for all political offences. Let us be friends.—National Intelligencer.

THE HAVANA CIGAR MARKET.—The price of cigars in the Havana market is $500 per thousand for Celestials, $300 for Leopoldinos, $250 for Senadores and Patriarcas, $100 for Imperials, $60 to $75 for Regalias, $45 for Londres, and $35 for Principes. The tobacco crop for this year is somewhat inferior to that of 1867, the quantity is about 25 per cent. short of last year's produce, and the price is fully 20 to 25 per cent. dearer. Some of the fine quality of this year's crop will be finer than any produced last year; but little or none of this class has been worked yet. An extraordinary dullness has existed in the market, occasioned by the high prices asked, the supposed inferiority of the crop, and the absence of orders for cigars, caused by the large stocks existing in the United States, England and Germany. The quantity of tobacco shipped from Havana since the 1st of January, 1868, is about 4,600,000 pounds, of which about 2,790,000 went to the United States.—Charleston Courier.

SUNDAY'S DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—Coin in the Treasur[y] eighty-seven millions.

Discrimination is made in favor of daught[ers] and widows of soldiers in dismissals from [the] Treasury.

PARIS, Nov. 15.—Roscoe, the great Common[er] is dead, aged 77 years.

TALLAHASSEE, Nov 15.—Gov. Reed, in requi[si]tion to the Justices of the Supreme Court fo[r] written opinion on the legality of impeachme[nt] refers them to an article of the Constitution, p[ro]viding for extraordinary sessions of the Legis[la]ture, by which only such business can be tra[ns]acted as is mentioned in the call, or brought [be]fore them while in session by the Governor, e[x]cept by the unanimous consent of both hous[es]. He also states that the four who voted as Senat[ors] were not entitled to seats, by reason of his proc[la]mation declaring them vacant by having occup[ied] other offices since the last Legislature: One [in] office of Secretary of State, one Circuit Jud[ge], one Clerk of the Court, one a Solicitor.

The Senate is composed of twenty-four me[m]bers. Gov. Reed claims only eight present, co[n]sequently no extraordinary session convened, a[nd] their acts are of no force.

He says the officers of the State do not know, [in] this unsettled and anomolous condition of thin[gs], whom to recognize as the head of the Executi[ve] Department. The administration of the St[ate] Government is obstructed, the peace and welfa[re] of the whole State jeoparded, and asks an opini[on] on points subjected at the earliest moment.

Sanders, the independent colored candidate [for] Congress, in quite a lengthy circular to the vote[rs] of the State of Florida, denounces the nomi[na]tion of Hamilton by the Republicans, as [a] fraud on the colored voters, and says Hamilto[n's] supporters boasts of having cheated the color[ed] Republicans out of their last chance. Saunde[rs] in a circular, dated Headquarters Union Leag[ue] Florida, addressed to members of the League says the Republican nominating Convention ha[s] put up a man whose name alone insures defeat, a[nd] calls on the colored voters to send a live black m[an] to the next Congress. Saunders signed hims[elf] Grand President of the Union League of Flori[da]. The Democrats have adopted the Grant mott[o] "Let us have peace."

CHARLESTON, Nov 15.—The hearing of the co[n]tested municipal election case will begin to-m[or]row, according to law, before the present coun[cil]. The negroes are very impatient of delay in gett[ing] control of the city government, and there are [ru]mors of an attempt to-morrow to install Pi[ls]bury as Mayor by force. In such an event seri[ous] trouble is apprehended. All is quiet so far, [but] the deepest excitement prevails in the commun[ity].

BALTIMORE, November 15.—Thos. Armstrong, [of] the firm of Armstrong, Cater & Co., aged 90, [is] dead.

FT. MONROE, November 15.—The Matanzas, f[rom] Savannah for New York, loaded with cotton, b[urnt] out a tube off Hatteras firing the vessel. The c[rew] were compelled to take boats, and were picked [up] after some hours and brought here.

THE CITY.

IMPORTANT MEETING.—A meeting of [the] city Democracy was held at the City Hall [this] morning. Resolutions ratifying the action of [the] various Wards and endorsing their nominat[ions] for council, were passed. The meeting also [en]dorsed W. H. Hulsey as the Democratic nom[inee] for Mayor of Atlanta.

STABBED.—We learn that Mr. Patr[ick] O'Keiffe, while attempting to make peace betw[een] two contending parties, was turned upon by [one] of them and severely stabbed in many portion[s of] his body.

This happened on Saturday last near the Ro[lling] Mill.

GEORGIA APPLES.—We are indebted [to] our friend Mr. T. J. Lyon for some delightful [ap]ples raised in Union county, Ga. The flav[or is] excellent, taste delicious, and dimensions h[uge]. Ten of them weigh 8 lbs. It just shows what G[eor]gia can do. There is no climate or soil b[etter] adapted, than those of North Georgia, to the [cul]ture of the apple and peach. Of the former f[ruit] the buff and limbertwig succeed best. The [trees] from which the specimens before us were ta[ken] yielded, this season, thirty-two and a half bu[shels] of fruit.

AN INQUIRY.—Governor Bullock has [of]fered a reward of $5,000 for the apprehensi[on of] the person who shot Albert G. Ruffin, the Ra[dical] Sheriff of Richmond county. This is well eno[ugh], although the amount offered is immensely la[rge], but why has he not offered a reward for th[e ap]prehension of the assassin who murdered y[oung] Law, one of the most estimable citizens of Sa[van]nah? Will some one of His Excellency's or[gans] answer this question?—Journal and Messenger.

It's a plain case. Bullock is always rea[dy to] protect a ruffian regardless of law. THE [CON]STITUTION, however, is not exactly "one o[f] Accidency's organs."

EFFECT OF RAILROADS.—The first b[ene]ficial development of a railroad is the [ap]preciation of lands lying along its line. [Its] influence is felt the moment the surv[eyor] drives his stakes and thereby says w[here] the railroad is to be, and there is a pro[gres]sive advancement as the work goes on. [We have] an instance that vast body of lands in So[uth]ern Georgia, between the Ogeechee an[d At]lantic and Gulf Railroad, through whi[ch a] survey has recently been made for th[e lo]cation of the Macon and Brunswick [Rail]road, has been heretofore a terra incog[nita] almost, and of but little value; but [no] sooner is the line fixed than we find cap[ital]ists entering the market and offering to [buy] the lands up—perhaps for speculation, [per]haps for the valuable timber they con[tain], and then for the land itself for settleme[nt].—Savannah Republican.

THE DARIEN CANAL.—A ship [canal] across the Isthmus of Darien, says the [New] York Post, would revolutionize the na[viga]tion of the ocean. It would shorte[n the] voyage from New York to San Fran[cisco] fourteen thousand miles; to Canton, [?] thousand; to Calcutta, four thousan[d]; Callao, ten thousand; to Melbourne, [?] thousand. Such a canal would at[tract] draw to it a trade valued at over three [hun]dred millions per annum, and it is [esti]mated over three million tons of ship[ping] would pass through it in a single yea[r] were now opened. In fact, it woul[d be]come at once a great thoroughfare of [com]merce.

It is a great and costly enterpri[se. It] will take years of time, and proba[bly] hundred millions of money. But it w[ill be] done, and we hope our own countr[y] will have the credit of beginning and [com]pleting it.

SOUTHERN SCHOOL BOOK ASSOCIATIO[N.—The] St. Louis correspondent of the New [York] News, under date 13th, says:

Gen. John B. Gordon, late Demo[cratic] candidate for Governor of Georgia, an[d per]sonal friend of Lee and Stonewall Jac[kson], is in this city endeavoring to induce [capi]talists to take stock in a Southern S[chool] Book Association, the object of which [is to] have a uniform set of books in a[ll the] schools of the Southern States.

THE AGRICULTURAL AND MANUFACTURING ASSOCIATION OF GEORGIA.—Our people now have time to turn their attention to objects of internal improvement and industrial progress. Whatever course the new administration shall pursue, it will be wise in the people of the South to preserve "a masterly inactivity" in politics, and allow the machine to grind on as it may. We can give our consent to no further demands of Radicalism, and it boots not to kick against the pricks. Therefore, let us turn to our own material resources, and see if their development will not enable us to bear the ills we have, as well as those to come.

The call for a Convention of the Agricultural and Manufacturing Association of the State of Georaia is most opportune, and, if attended with wisdom, enterprise, and foresight, will do much towards rescuing us from the thraldom of poverty and the dangers of misrule than the most friendly policy we could reasonably hope for from the general Government. We want to make a long stride in our system of agriculture; we want an earnest, uniform, and intelligent effort to harmonise labor with capital, and readjust our domestic and productive economy; we want a well devised and successful plan for inducing immigration; we want our large land holders to divide their domains in small lots, and sell them to immigrants and freedmen on time, and employ the proceeds in the building of railroads, cities, factories, and other improvements.

We must become a manufacturing community. From the bowels of our mountains, and the teeming soil of our hillsides and valleys, we can procure the raw material for the manufacture of almost every article consumed by man. This is the prime source of all wealth, but while we confine ourselves to digging out the ores and plowing the soil, we shall continue to be the mere hewers and drawers—the menials and slaves of those who run the machinery and pocket the profits. Unless we establish manufactories in our own midst, by which to save the profit as well as transportation on the raw material to and from the point of production, manufacture and consumption, we will never fully reap the reward of our own labor. There will be no reason in future why we should fail to establish manufactories of every kind in the South. Ample capital we will soon have of our own for all such purposes. There will be no profitable investment for it outside of these and internal improvements. Hence the sooner we take effective steps in this direction the earlier will we arrive at a real and substantial prosperity.

EXTRACT FROM ADDRESS OF CENTRAL CLUB OF THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY OF SOUTH CAROLINA.—We copy from the Charleston Courier the following extract from an address to the party in that State, which is equally applicable to the Democracy of Georgia, and to which we beg leave to call their attention:

"Fellow-citizens, we address you in the spirit of hope and faith. God in His providence has seen fit to deny to us the triumph which we deemed essential to the welfare of the State. If we cannot win, let us seek to deserve success. To the manhood of the State, do we appeal. Let the Democratic party of South Carolina remain a power and an influence in the State. Keep your ranks undivided. Adhere to your political principles until better ones invite you to their adoption. From failure gather wisdom; out of defeat get patience and resolution. Preserving your fidelity to the eclectic principles of your party, go bravely and earnestly to work in the field of material development. Thus building up the State upon the basis of labor, and surrounding our political creeds with the solid muniments of wealth, intelligence and virtue, we will redeem our broken fortunes, heal our bleeding wounds, and ere long secure the peaceful triumph of those wise and virtuous elements essential to the dignity of the State and the prosperity of the people.

"By order of the Central Club of the Democratic party of South Carolina.

"WADE HAMPTON, President."

☞ One of the first acts of the next Congress will be, we presume, to adopt universal suffrage. President Grant is said to favor the measure. In those States of the North where only partial suffrage exists, the people, we imagine, are fully prepared to accept it. At least they were constantly reminded during the canvass that such would be the effect of an other Republican triumph.

Having been fastered upon us without our consent they have no right to object now that it is likely to be riveted upon them by similar means.

ATLANTA, Nov. 16, 1868.

Col. Carey W. Styles, Editor of The Constitution: I hereby withdraw my name as Chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee of the city of Atlanta.

Yours truly, R. F. MADDOX.

We are sorry that our friend withdraws from the service. At this particular juncture we need every man at his post, and it is a matter of general regret that such an officer as Col. Maddox should abandon so important a post as Chairman of the Executive Committee. We hope the Committee will meet promptly and fill the vacancy, or refer the matter to the Ward Clubs and let them act, for it behooves us to preserve the organization in tact, and keep all points guarded.

☞ Horace Greeley dedicates his "Recollections of a busy Life," just issued from the press, to "American boys born in poverty." Horace's recollections are very poor. It was meet to inscribe them to poverty.

Co-Operative Building Associations.

In a city like ours, where a majority of the population are comparatively poor, an important question to the homeless is how to obtain homes of their own under the most accommodating terms. The Loan and Building Associations have done much in this direction, at the same time they have fallen short of supplying the general want. This, we infer, is attributable to the high rate of interest commanded by the money they place on sale. If it can be supplied by other agencies at a less rate it is certainly the duty of every good citizen to encourage their introduction. If the co-operative societies are the remedy we should by all means adopt them. The poorer classes in this city are solely burdened with rent, and any measure looking to their amelioration will receive the hearty sanction of our citizens. Were they relieved of this weight others would be comparatively light. Co-operative societies have been formed elsewhere with the best of results. Undoubtedly they would do for us what they have done for others. As they exist in New York, for instance, with equal responsibility upon and mutual benefit accruing to each member they might be introduced here with corresponding results.

The primary object of these Associations, says the Nashville Banner, is to enable every member to become his own landlord by the purchase of a house and lot in some suitable locality. The society does not propose to buy lots or to erect houses until after next February. The society also combines in addition to the foregoing the principles of a saving bank and a life insurance institution. The shares are placed at $1,000 each, payable in weekly installments of fifty cents. Each member is limited to five shares, and an initiation fee of fifty cents per share is demanded from every member. This sum amounts to $26 50 per share per annum, and with a membership of 5,000, or its equivalent in that number of shares, the weekly receipts of the Association would amount to $2,500, or $130,000 per annum. The initiation fee, together with the fines and the premiums on moneys sold, go to constitute a sinking fund, from which the members receive the following benefits:

First—A member paying fifty cents weekly for fifteen years, on one share, amounting to $390, receives in cash $1,000, showing a profit of $610.

Second—In the event of the death of a member his widow and children receive from the Association $200 in cash for every share held by him, and all he has paid to the Association.

Third—A member may withdraw from the Association the amount he has paid, with 6 per cent. interest.

Fourth—In case of death, where a member has paid for five years on the mortgage on his house, the balance of the mortgage due the Association is remitted, by his widow or children paying seven per cent. interest on the balance to the end of the term of said mortgage, at which time the mortgage is cancelled, and his house becomes free and clear.

The sinking fund provided as above will be loaned out on bond and mortgage, or be invested in valuable real estate. When the society purchases a lot or lots in any given place (which can only be done by a two-thirds vote of the co-operators), and erects houses thereon, the work on them is done, so far as it can be, by members, who are paid the regular rates of wages prescribed by their regular trade associations. Every other house built is allotted for by the members; the member drawing the house receives the deed for the same at cost price, and gives a mortgage to the Association for the whole amount payable in fifteen years, or sooner if the member desire, in equal monthly payments; and alternately money is sold at a premium, to build a house, the member selecting a lot, plans, and specifications for himself, giving a mortgage for the same on the same terms as above. In case of defalcation, etc. members are liable for the amount which each has severally paid up, and no more.

INTERVIEW WITH GENERAL GRANT.—A correspondent of the New York Herald gives an account of an interview of a number of representatives of the press with General Grant on Tuesday, from which we make the following extract:

It having been mentioned that he enjoyed a reputation for cautiously avoiding politics, the General replied that it was true he did not like to talk about politics, because that which may be regarded as right and proper in politics to-day, may be all wrong six months hence, and he thought that politics is a subject about which the least said the better.

In reply to the remark that no President ever entered upon his executive duties with a fairer opportunity to administer the affairs of the country so as to secure tranquility and prosperity, the General said that it would be his constant care to seek an early restoration of peace and harmony throughout the Union. The successful manner in which the President elect eluded the elaborate reception preparations in this city having been referred to, the General remarked that all such public demonstrations found no favor in his sight. In traveling through the country it frequently happened that such displays were in full operation. In such cases they cannot well be avoided. "But this city," said he, "is my home, and to have glorifications of that kind here would be repugnant to my feelings. Nothing of that kind will be done with my approbation. It had been published that he would hold a public reception at his residence. This was not true. He had not expressed any intention of doing so. He would be happy to receive all who may wish to favor him with a call, either at his home or at his headquarters, but a public reception at this time did not appear to him as just the proper thing. If they (meaning the political organizations which threatened him with an ovation) wish to hold a jubilee—if the result of the election pleases them—let them parade, fife and drum away; only I hope they will not disturb me, or require me to take any part in the proceedings."

☞ Gen. Grant and the office seekers are having a warm time. The more they press the more he repels. Between himself and them he keeps a bonfire steadily burning, into which all their delicate reminders by letter, of services rendered, are committed. To all such he replies, "depart from me ye accursed into everlasting fire."

ALABAMA GONE RADICAL.—The Montgomery Mail says Alabama has gone for Grant by three thousand majority, and correctly adds that the white men of the State are responsible for the result.

☞ Kilpatrick was a famous raider during the war, and since its close he has labored to keep the embers still alive, but Forrest's hot shot discharged at him the other day, induces him with Grant to exclaim, "let us have peace."

☞ Charles Reade gets $50,000 for his novel on which he is now hard at work.

GRANT'S CABINET.

He Has It Cut and Dried.

From the Washington Correspondence of the New York World, 16th.

At the present time the most interesting topic of conversation hereabouts is the probable composition of General Grant's Cabinet. On this subject there are many claimants to the reputation of being good authorities, and profound oracles are not wanting who can foretell the signs of the times in this respect. They all have their believers; but the truth is that no other President elect since the foundation of the government ever preserved so rigid a silence in regard to his future course in important State matters as Gen. Grant, and as a natural consequence the vast number of rumors now floating around contain but a very few well founded facts. It is unmistakably clear that Grant is desirous of making his Cabinet selections without consulting party; consequently all those who volunteer their advice in the matter are treated alike, from the dogmatic political manager, who assumes to dictate, to the humble aspirant for Presidential favor who ventures only to throw out a suggestion. They are patiently listened to and graciously permitted to do all the talking. Thus all such interviews terminate highly unsatisfactory, without a promise or even a hint that their counsel has taken sufficient root to bring forth fruit.

It is an undoubted fact that General Grant has fully decided to hold himself entirely aloof from party restraints; for he feels that in order to be free to act in all emergencies for the best interests of the country, he must not be fettered by party ties. He evidently feels that, in both his nomination and election, the debt of gratitude is as heavy on one side as it is on the other, and he regards himself as absolved from the necessity of accepting at the hands of the Republican party nominations to important offices and plans for national exigencies ready made for him. The earnestness with which the Republican leaders implored him to bear the standard through the Presidential contest, the consciousness that the honor was unsought and even repeatedly declined by him, and that when at length he acceded to their urgent request, he did so with the distinct understanding that he was to be independent in action, and just as free to follow the dictates of his own judgment as when he accepted, under the same conditions, the chief command of the armies in the field, justify his reticence on the subject.

Gen. Grant does not keep his thoughts and views hermetically sealed, as it were, in his own mind. He has intimate and confidential friends who have been long tried in prudence of good counsel, who still share his confidence to a great extent; but these friends, knowing the importance that the General attaches to secrecy concerning his future actions, are almost as reticent and reserved as the General. Nevertheless, although it is next to impossible to obtain anything in regard to the formation of the next Cabinet that may be announced by authority, there are some slight intimations dropped by those who have opportunities of knowing, which, when taken in connection with other known facts, form conclusions worthy of mention. Certain of these intimations lead to the belief that both J. Lanthrop Motley and Edwin M. Stanton have been spoken of by Grant as excellent men for the office of Secretary of State; that Admiral D. D. Porter is the likeliest man for Secretary of the Navy, and that General J. M. Schofield will most probably retain the control of the War Department. These names are based on something better than mere conjecture; but in relation to the other Cabinet positions nothing more reliable than current rumors can be found. One statement I can make with great confidence, which is that the Cabinet of Gen. Grant is already "cut and dried." The men have been determined upon, and the chances that any alteration may be made in the list are exceedingly small. Another fact in relation to the future conduct of the President elect that all such professors of political science and the art of sharing out public offices as Wendell Phillips, Ben. Butler, on the one side, and N. B. Forrest, Wade Hampton, C. C. Vallandigham, et. al., on the other, may as well send their advice to the King of Dahomey as to General Grant. A word to the wise is sufficient

"MEN OF OUR TIMES."—The Radical tract which Mrs. Beecher Stowe has given to the world, calling it biographies of the leading patriots of the day, has found a critic abroad able to estimate it correctly. The Saturday Review recently wrote of "Men of Our Time" as follows:

The authoress of Uncle Tom's Cabin is about the last person at whose hands we should look for a candid estimate of events or men connected with the politics of the last twenty years, or even for an intelligent appreciation of the magnitude and difficulty of the questions involved in the struggle which her first work did so much to stimulate and embitter. Her list of "leading patriots of the day" of course includes none but Abolitionist politicians, and none but Republican officers. We might as well expect to find Mr. Davis among her heroes as Webster or Stephen Douglas; and the General who organized, and almost created, the Federal army of the Potomac is scarcely more of a patriot in her eyes than the chief of the "rebellion." Lincoln, Grant, and Sheridan fairly take their place among those who have deserved well of their country; but it suggests some curious reflections to find by their side such violent disunionists as Senator Sumner and Wendell Phillips nor would most people be disposed to rank Frederick Douglas among the "leading patriots" of America. In short, if the work had been called "Principal Agents of Abolition," the title page would have given a far better notion of the contents. But this is the least fault of the work. Women are rarely just towards those whom they dislike, and female politicians are not likely to surmount the prejudices natural to their sex. We could not, therefore, expect Mrs. Stowe to speak fairly or candidly of the Southerners; and if gratifies her temper to spell Confederate with a small initial letter, no one will grudge her the petty gratification of typographic impertinence. Writers of the school of Carlile and Bradlaugh used in the same way to intimate their contempt for Christianity. It is a matter of course, too, that every judicial decision in favor of slavery, every opposition offered to Abolitionism in the interests of Union, should be ascribed to the worst motives. But not even the indulgence we feel for feminine outbreaks of temper can induce us to pardon the deliberate revival, in cold blood, of the foulest calumnies generated by a fierce and natural excitement in a moment of national exasperation; and the writer who now repeats the falsehoods invented at the time to associate Mr. Davis with the crime of Booth puts herself beyond the pale of tolerance. This single outrage suffices to render the work a disgrace alike to the author and her American publishers.

ATLANTA SEMINARY.—No subject connected with the reconstruction of the Southern States bears so strongly upon the hearts of the thoughtful as the education of the people. White and black need immediate culture, immediate groundlings in the elements of a sound education and an enlarged teaching which no spasmodic charity can secure. There are, in many of the larger cities of the South, institutions of learning which deserve encouragement and which we should be very sorry to have broken up. Of these, but few are pecuniarily easy, and all need more or less assistance. Mrs. George Battey, of Atlanta, Georgia, is at present in this city, seeking aid for the Atlanta Seminary, of which she is the accomplished principal, and we cordially commend her cause to those of our fellow-citizens who believe in benevolence and good will. Words are cheap. We can all rattle off the stereotype phrases about the desirability of education and the beauty of charity, while but few of us indulge in what is, after all, the greater luxury of giving. Mrs. Battey deserves the confidence of our people, and the generous welcome of every friend of the South; of every believer in the benefit of education. We join heartily in her indorsement, and commend her to the heads, hearts, and pocket-books of the people of the city.—New York Democrat.

ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCHES

FROM WASHINGTON.

Shocks of Earthquakes in New Jersey.

Instructions to Collectors.

The Charleston Contested Election.

North Carolina Legislature.

Death of Baron Rothschild.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—John F. Smith has been appointed Supervisor for the Northern District of New York.

McCulloch has ordered the dismissal of twelve inspectors from the Philadelphia Custom House.

McCulloch and Rollins had a long interview to-day.

Several Supervisors will be appointed to-morrow.

The Comptroller of the currency recommends the redemption of National Bank notes in New York, and prohibiting the payment of interest on bank balances by banks in the city of New York.

The report contains the usual statistical information, showing the condition of the banks, amount of taxes paid, lawful money received, &c. Twelve banks have organized since the last report, Nineteen are winding up—four have failed.

Schofield has returned.

The Supervising Architect of the Treasury, in his annual report, urges a decision by Congress regarding the New Orleans Mint, which he denominates an unsightly and half-finished mass of masonry. He also urges the purchase of the battery at New York, and the building, by the appraisors, of stores, and ultimately a new Custom House, which necessities merchants alreaty demand.

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—Gen. Badeau, of General Grant's Staff, stated to-day, in answer to the question whether Gen. Grant intended to be present at Mr. Evarts' dinner, that it would depend on whether Secretaries McCulloch and Welles or Postmaster Gen. Randall would be among the guests, as the President elect did not desire to meet either of these gentlemen.

Four distinct shocks of earthquake were felt at Elizabeth, N. J., last night, at a quarter past 10 o'clock. The four shocks continued about twenty seconds. Chairs, tables, bedsteads and other articles of furniture were swayed to and fro.

Rollins has issued stringent orders to gaugers about stamping and branding barrels. Neglect will lead to immediate dismissal. The orders include this paragraph:

Collectors and other seizing officers are instructed to seize any and all casks or packages of spirits gauged after the receipt of these instructions which are not marked and branded as required by instructions in Series 4 par. 7 and the Supplement thereto, and forthwith report the facts to this office. The owner of the spirits will find it for his interest to insist that the gauger does his work correctly

A large number of printers have lately arrived seeking places in government printing offices The Superintendent answers he has sufficient force now. He has already made engagements to meet all business demands in future.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 16.—The trial of the contested election case has progressed quietly to-day, although excited crowds surrounded the City Hall. Eminent counsel are engaged on both sides. The impression prevails that the election will be adjudged to have been irregular and illegal.

RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 16.—The General Assembly convened in this city to-day. Both Houses met at twelve o'clock. There not being a quorum in the Senate, it adjourned until to-morrow. In the House the qualification of several new members gave it a quorum, but the Senate having adjourned, the House followed suit. Gov. Holden will send in his message to-morrow. Hon. A. H. Jones, of the Mountain District, claims that he has beaten Plato Durham. The official vote will decide.

TALLAHASSEE, Nov. 16.—At the meeting of the Supreme Court on Wednesday next Gov. Reed will apply for a quo-warranto writ against Lt. Gov. Gleason; calling on him to show by what right he holds the office of Lieutenant Governor of the State. Governor Reed claims that Gleason was ineligible when he qualified, not having been a citizen of the State three years as required by the Constitution. There is in type to be issued to-morrow a Circular in the interest of Saunders, the independent colored candidate for Congress, from "The unterrified Tiger Committee of the Republican party of Florida," and signed by some fifteen prominent colored politicians, calling for a hearty support of the voters in the coming election, on the twenty-ninth of December.

MADRID, Nov. 16.—There was an immense demonstration on Saturday in favor of monarchy. Fifty thousand persons were present. Olosgo, Martos, Lesina, Prim, and Topet spoke, amid much enthusiasm.

PARIS, Nov. 16.—Baron Jas. Rothschild, head of the house, is dead.

THE ESTATE OF THADDEUS STEVENS.—A dispatch from this city says: Congressman Dicky and Hon. E. M. McPherson are engaged to-day in winding up the affairs of the late Thaddeus Stevens. They find only about enough personal property to pay his debts, and his real estate consists of a house in Lancaster, estimated at $15,000, and his iron furnace property, estimated at from $50,000 to $60,000. It was damaged by the rebels in their Chambersburg raid to the extent of over $100,000, or more than one-half of Mr. Stevens was worth.—National Intelligencer.

STAR AGRICULTURAL WORKS.
The Albany Cotton Gin Manuf'g Co.
Manufacturers of the Celebrated "Star" Cotton Gins and Condensers, "Star" Threshing Machines, "Star" Lever and Endless Chain Horse Powers, and other Agricultural Machinery.
Our "STAR" Cotton Gin and Condenser have taken first premiums in every instance where entered at Southern Fairs, competing with the best Gins of the country made by other parties.
At the two Great Fairs of the Mechanics' and Agricultural Association, held at New Orleans successively in November, 1866, and January, 1868, the "Star" Gin and Condenser took $200 at both Fairs, and all the premiums offered on Gins and Condensers, against a competition embracing all other Gins of any prominence in the country. Also at the last two State Fairs held at St. Louis, Mo., our Gin and Condenser took the First Premium against a powerful competition.
The Condenser attachment being new to most planters, we wish to say that it entirely obviates the necessity of a "lint room," as with it a Gin may be used in the open air and the sheet or bat as it is discharged from the Condenser is ready for the press. It effectually cleans the cotton of sand and dirt, and makes the work of ginning free from the danger of inhaling the fine particles of lint which otherwise fill the air.
N. B. We also make the most approved HORSE POWERS (both Lever and Railway) to drive our "Star" Gins, and also manufacture the celebrated "Star" Threshing Machines. We furnish Gins, with or without Condensers. For sale by our AGENTS and DEALERS generally. Our Complete Illustrated Descriptive Circular is sent, free of charge, on application by mail. Address The ALBANY COTTON GIN MANUFACTURING CO., Albany, N. Y. P. O. Drawer 162.

LORILLARD'S "Yacht Club" SMOKING TOBACCO.
The best judges everywhere declare it to be the best for many reasons:
It is made of the finest stock grown.
It has a mild and agreeable aroma.
It is anti-nervous in its effects.
The Nicotine having been extracted—
And is perfectly free from drugs.
It leaves no acrid, disagreeable after-taste,
Does not burn or sting the tongue,
And leaves no offensive odor in the room.
Being very light, one pound will last as long
As two to three pounds of ordinary tobaccos.

ATLANTA, GA., Nov. 16, 1868.

MEETING OF THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION TO NOMINATE A CANDIDATE FOR MAYOR.—Convention met at 12 M., in the Representative Hall, on Saturday 14th of November.
Meeting called to order by Col. R. F. Maddox, who nominated Major J. H. Steele to the Chair. Motion put and carried.
Messrs. John Milledge, Jr., George H. Hammond, and Volney Dunning were appointed Secretaries.
Col. J. M. Calhoun moved that the meeting adjourn to meet at 7 P. M., amended by Col John Thomas to 7 P. M., Monday evening. Capt. Milledge opposed adjournment. Motion to adjourn lost. The Chair counseled moderation and harmony. At this point Col. J. M. Calhoun withdrew his name as a candidate for nomination.
Judge Hayden then moved that we proceed at once to nominate, and that the majority rule be adopted. Motion adopted.
On motion of Col. Styles it was agreed that the polls be kept open until 8 o'clock, that all might have an opportunity to vote.
Col. W. H. Hulsey, Mr. E. E. Rawson, and Col. J. M. Calhoun having been put in nomination, agreed to abide by it and support the nominee.
Messrs. B. N. Williford, Henry Holmes, W. B. Bass, J. J. Thrasher, S. B. Oatman and O. H. Jones were appointed managers of the election. On motion of Col. J. T. Montgomery, it was agreed that the names of voters be recorded and their votes numbered. On motion the meeting adjourned to re-assemble on Monday morning, at 9 o'clock to receive the result, and the ballotting proceeded.
MONDAY MORNING, November 16, 1868.
The meeting re-assembled pursuant to adjournment at 9 o'clock, A. M., Maj. J. H. Steele in the Chair. Mr. J. D. Perdue was made an additional Secretary. The object of the meeting being to receive the report of the managers appointed to superintend the ballot for a nominee. Col. J. J. Thrasher made the report as follows:

Col. W. H. Hulsey	635
Mr. E. E. Rawson	379
Col. J. M. Calhoun	54
Scattering	1
Total	1069

Col. W. H. Hulsey having received 201 majority of all the votes polled was declared by the Chair the nominee of the Democratic party for Mayor.
On motion the nomination was made unanimous.
The following resolutions, offered by Colonel Reuben Arnold, were unanimously adopted:
Whereas, The 1st Ward has nominated for members of Council, John P. Mays and W. H. Brotherton; and,
Whereas, The 2d Ward has nominated Dr. D. C. O'Keefe and Dr. E. J. Roach; and,
Whereas, The 3d Ward has nominated W. C. Anderson and V. P. Sisson; and,
Whereas, The 4th Ward has nominated M. Mahoney and E. P. Howell; and,
Whereas, The 5th Ward has nominated S. R. McCamy and E. R. Carr, therefore
Resolved, That we, the Democracy of the city of Atlanta, in mass meeting assembled do endorse the nominations that have been made by the several Wards and will give them our cordial support.
Resolved, That THE CONSTITUTION and Intelligencer be requested to publish the proceedings of this and Saturday's meeting.
On motion the meeting adjourned sine die.
JOHN H. STEELE, Chairman.
JOHN MILLEDGE, JR., VOLNEY DUNNING, GEO. H. HAMMOND, J. D. PERDUE, Secretaries.

A LITERARY RELIC.—A gentleman in this city has in his possession an edition of the works of Edmund Burke, of 1834, which was once the property of Samuel Taylor Coleridge, author of the "Ancient Mariner" and "Christabelle." On the fly leaf of the first volume are the following lines in the autograph of the poet:
Burke possessed, and has sedulously sharpened, that eye which sees all things, actions, and events in relation to the laws that determine their existence and circumscribe their possibility. He referred habitually to principles. He was a scientific statesman, and therefore a seer. For every principle contains in itself the germs of a prophecy; and as the prophetic power is the essential privilege of science, so the fulfilment of its oracles supplies the outward, and to men in general, the only test of its claims to this title.
S. T. COLERIDGE.
On another blank leaf is the further opinion:
Burke in his public life found himself, as it were, in a Noah's ark, with a very few men and a great many beasts.
S. T. COLERIDGE.
The book is invaluable in the opinion of a scholar; the writing is in the very characteristic style of Coleridge, and there is no doubt of its authenticity.

Hulsey.

TUNE, DIXIE'S LAND.

Away down South in de land of cotton,
Boys in Grey are not forgotten,
Chorus.—This-a-way—this way—this way—Hulsey boys!
In Georgy State whar Bill was born in,
Early on one frosty mornin',
Chorus.—This-a-way—this way—this way—Hulsey boys.
Chorus.—Den I'm bound to vote for Hulsey,
Hooray—hooray!
The Hulsey band will take a stand
To clear the way for Hulsey.
This way—this way—we're bound to vote for Hulsey.
Some folks around the corner prate
About another candidate;
This-a-way, etc.
Now, Democrats, dont you be silly—
Stand up square to Colonel Billy.
This-a-way, etc.
Chorus.—Den I'm bound to vote for Hulsey, etc.
He got the nomination fairly—
Two to one, or very nearly,
This-a-way, etc.
Hulsey, boys, is now the ticket;
Think of that, and dont forget it,
This-a-way, etc.
Chorus.—Den I'm bound to vote for Hulsey, etc.
Hulsey foots the bill for mayor—
Suits the poor man and tax-payer,
This-a-way, etc.
Let every Democrat remember
To vote for Hulsey in December,
This-a-way, etc.
Chorus.—Den I'm bound to vote for Hulsey,
Hooray—hooray!
The Hulsey band will take a stand
To clear the way for Hulsey.
This way—this way—we're bound to vote for Hulsey.

☞ A CARD.—ATLANTA, NOV. 9, 1868.—L. A. DUGAS, M. D., Dean of the Faculty, Augusta, Ga.—The action of the Faculty of the Augusta Medical College, my Alma Mater, with regard to my departure from the "principles of legitimate medicine," and again restoring me to their confidence and that of the regular profession, renders me under obligations to them, and to you, which is lasting. In justice to my Alma Mater, and the profession throughout the country, I feel it incumbent upon me, thus publicly, to admit the errors of the past, as the "best evidence of sincerity," and that my "future will be alike honorable and useful" by adhering to the principles of true medicine. A HOUSEHOLD NECESSITY!
Darby's Prophylactic Fluid!

The Country is Waking up to its Merits!
What About It!
It will purify the most offensive atmosphere.
It will cleanse and cure Erysipelas, all sorts of sores, ulcers, boils, cuts, wounds, etc.
It will prevent gangrene.
It will cure burns, scalds, and bruises.
It is a perfect pain-killer.
It will destroy and neutralize all, animal and vegetable poisons.
It will therefore, cure stings or bites of insects.
It will cleanse and purify the breath, and hence is an excellent tooth-wash and healthful cosmetic.
It will cure diarrhœa, even the worst chronic case.
It will instantly cure horses of the colic or perhaps of heartburn.
It will, owing to the bleaching properties of Chlorine, remove all ink spots, mildew, vegetable stains, &c.
It will cure tetters.
It will remove rancidity out of butter and lard.
It will, properly used, be more efficacious than any other agent in preventing the spread of contagious diseases, and has frequently done it.
It will, used in bathing, keep the skin healthy, soft and white.
We pledge whatever reputation we may have as honest, truthful gentlemen for the performance of all here claimed, as the article and more too.
It is used everywhere by the medical profession as fast as it is introduced, and we respectfully refer to all prominent men of the profession, from very many of whom we have the highest testimonials of praise for the Fluid.
As a convenient article for constant family use it has no superior.
It has a beautiful color, and when the color is gone the virtues of the Fluid are lost. Hence be careful not to get the cork in the bottle of any animal or vegetable substance, and always keep the bottle stopped. After the Fluid has acted the residium is perfectly inert and harmless.
It is taken internally, as well as applied externally.
It is cheap, selling only at 50 cents per bottle of half pint.
Everybody Uses it and Praises It!
True Merit is the Foundation of its Success!!
Read Some of the Testimony!
Letter from Hon. Alex. A. Stephens, of Ga.]
CRAWFORDSVILLE, GA., 23d Sept. 1868.
Darby's Prophylactic Fluid is an article of little cost, but great value. Its domestic as well as medicinal uses are numerous, while its specialties are most wonderful. I have not been without it for ten years, and no head of a family who can afford to have it should be without it.
ALEXANDER H. STEPHENS.
Letter from Hon. A. J. Walker, Montgomery, Ala., Ex-Chief Justice Supreme Court of Ala.]
I have for many years used Darby's Prophylatic Fluid, and have found it exceedingly valuable.—I recommend it to the public confidence as highly useful for the various purposes to which it is applied.

Letter from Rev. Jefferson Hamilton, D. D., Mobile, Ala., Minister M. E. Church, South.]
My family have used Darby's Prophylactic Fluid for several years for various purposes, and esteem it very highly. In fact I know of no article within the whole range of Chemical preparations so generally and highly recommended by acquaintances as this.
MOBILE, Ala., Sept. 23, 1868. J. HAMILTON.
Letter from Prof. R. T. Brumby, Marietta, Ga.]
I was fifteen years Professor of Chemistry, &c., in the Univ. of Alabama, and eight years in the Univ. of S. C., and I am convinced that Prof. Darby's Prophylactic Fluid possesses all the merit he claims for it. It is very generally known and appreciated in all the Southern States, and is sold by nearly all Southern druggists.
MARIETTA, GA., Oct. 1868. R. T. BRUMBY.
From Rev. John Mathews, Pastor M. E. South, at Montgomery, Ala.
MONTGOMERY, ALA., Oct. 20, 1868.
Darby's Prophylactic Fluid is the only medicine kept in my family. We use it for almost everything—burns, bruises, stings, earache, sour stomach, &c., &c. My children, when hurt or bruised, always call at once for Darby's Fluid. We cannot get along well without it.
JOHN MATHEWS.
From W. O. Tuggle, Esq., Attorney at Law, La Grange, Ga.
LAGRANGE, GA., Oct., 21, 1868.
I take pleasure in stating that I have found Darby's Prophylactic Fluid to be an excellent remedy for cutaneous eruptions, chapped skin and bruises. It is a priceless jewel as a disinfectant, and my wife states, for the benefit of young mothers, that "Darby's Fluid" is a valuable adjunct to the nursery.
W. O. TUGGLE.
From J. H. Heustis, M. D., Mobile, Ala., Prof. Mobile Medical College.
MOBILE, ALA., Oct. 19, 1868.
I have used your Chlorinated Fluid in Hospital and private practice for ten years, and know of nothing better for sloughing, contused and lacerated wounds, foul and indolent ulcers, and as a disinfectant. J. F. HEUSTIS, M. D.
These are but a few of the most recent testimonials received in behalf of the preparation.
It is as useful in winter as summer, for its disinfecting quality is the least of its really valuable uses.
It is neatly put up in half pint bottles, and sells at 50 cents per bottle.
All Druggists keep it.

The Daily Constitution.
ATLANTA, GEORGIA, NOVEMBER 16.

Mississippi to be Reconstructed Again.

We have received a document purporting to be a proclamation from a mangy cuss named Gibbs, chairman of a committee of five thieves, appointed by the late lamented convention of convicts, horse-thieves and field hands at Jackson:

ROOMS OF COMMITTEE OF FIVE,
Mississippi Constitutional Convention,
Jackson, Miss., Nov. 5, 1868.

Whereas, A convention of the people of the State of Mississippi convened at the city of Jackson, in said State, on the 7th of January, A. D., 1868, by order of Major General E. O. C. Ord, commanding the Fourth Military District under the powers conferred by the reconstruction acts of the thirty-ninth and fortieth Congress, and the acts supplementary thereto, for the purpose of framing a constitution and civil government for the State of Mississippi, did, on the 10th day of March, A. D., 1868, pass a resolution creating and appointing a committee of five of its members to superintend the election for the ratification of the constitution framed by said convention, and for the election of State officers, including members of the Legislature, and for Representatives in the Congress of the United States, and to ascertain and make proclamation of the result of the election; and

Whereas, Said election was ordered and held in the several counties of the State, commencing on the 22d day of June, A. D., 1868.

Now, therefore, by virtue of authority thus vested in said Committee of five, I, as Chairman of said Committee, after a careful examination of the reports made by the Commissioners appointed to hold said elections, and after a patient and diligent investigation of the affidavits and statements of many other citizens of the State, in reference to the conduct of said elections, do hereby proclaim and declare the Constitution thus submitted to have been duly ratified and adopted by a majority of the legal votes cast at said election, and the following persons duly chosen and elected at the same time, to fill the several offices as provided in said Constitution:

Governor—Beroth B. Eggleston.
Lieutenant Governor—Andrew J. Jamison.
Secretary of State—Robert J. Alcorn.
Treasurer—Duncan McA. Williams.
Auditor of Public Accounts—William J. Morgan.
Attorney General—Joshua S. Morris.
Superintendent of Public Schools—Chas. W. Clarke.

Here follows the names of State Senators and Representatives.

REPRESENTATIVES TO FORTIETH CONGRESS.
First District—Chas. H. Townsend.
Second District—T. N. Martin.
Third District—Chas. A. Sullivan.
Fourth District—Geo. C. McKee.
Fifth District—L. W. Pierce.

REPRESENTATIVES TO FORTY-FIRST CONGRESS.
First District—J. W. Wofford.
Second District—Jehiel Railsback.
Third District—Chas. A. Sullivan.
Fourth District—Geo. C. McKee.
Fifth District—L. W. Pierce.

And I do hereby further declare the election held in the counties of Copiah, Carroll, Chickasaw, DeSoto, Lafayette, Rankin and Yallabusha, on account of threats, intimidation, frauds and violence practiced in said counties during the holding of said election, to be illegal and void.

WILLIAM H. GIBBS,
Chairman Committee of Five.

We hope General Gillem will send a corporal and a squad of men to take charge of Gibbs, and put him in irons.—Memphis Avalanche.

THE CONSTITUTION is intensely DEMOCRATIC!

and neither pains, enterprise, nor money will be spared, in the efforts of the Proprietors, to make it a leading organ, and one of the first papers in the South.

THE CONSTITUTION has scarcely laid aside its baptismal robes, and yet its circulation is equal to, if not greater, than any political paper in Georgia. This unparalleled success is mainly attributable to the industry and enterprise which have characterized its management.

As its name imports, it is battling for the Constitution and the liberties of the people; and the patronage it has received, assures the Proprietors that their labors are appreciated, and their policy endorsed.

As an advertising medium, THE CONSTITUTION is, perhaps, superior to any paper published in the State, its circulation being confined to no particular locality, but extending from one end of the State to the other, and from the Savannah to the Chattahoochee.

The Proprietors intend no relaxation of their energy, but will add new features of interest and more vigorous enterprise as patronage increases; and they hope in future, as in the past, to merit the good will and plaudits of their numerous readers.

Prophitt's Pain Kill It.
Prophitt's Anti-Bilious Pills.
The excellent remedies of O. S. Prophitt, M. D., need no recommendation. Their well known power in removing the diseases peculiar to our Southern Climate, having already established for them an enviable reputation in Georgia and the adjoining States. As the majority of persons living in the South are pre-disposed to disease of the Liver, it is granted by all intelligent physicians that most of the pains and aches of our people are due to organic or functional derangement of that important organ. Prophitt's Anti-Bilious Pills and Liver Medicine strike directly at the root of the evil. They cure the Liver which, in nine cases out of ten, is at the bottom of the Coughs, Dyspepsia, Colic, Sick Headache, Rheumatism, Constipation, Menstrual Obstructions, etc., so common among our people. Earache Toothache, Acute Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and bodily pains of every kind. flee before PROPHITT'S PAIN KILL IT like chaff before the wind.

1868. DRY GOODS. 1868.
Fall and Winter Dry Goods.
JOHN M. GANNON,
(Corner WHITEHALL and HUNTER Streets,)
IS just in receipt of the following splendid line of Goods, which he has carefully selected, and will dispose of at prices that cannot fail to give satisfaction:
DRESS GOODS OF EVERY DESCRIPTION.
A great variety of Cloaks and Shawls; a splendid line of Blankets and Flannels; a full stocck of Hosiery, Handkerchiefs, Embroideries, Breakfast Shawls, Nubias, Scarfs, Ladies' Under Vests, Gloves, Hoops and Balmoral Skirts, Irish Linens, Birds' Eye Diapers, Table Linen, Scotch Diaper, Crash, Broad Cloths, Cassimeres, English Tweeds, Satinets, Kentucky and North Carolina Jeans, Prints, Sheetings, Shirtings, Demins, Stripes, Tickings, Osnaburgs, Linseys, Drills, Checks and everything kept in a first class Dry Goods store.
ONE PRICE ONLY.
It affords me pleasure to be able to state that this system has been a complete success and gives general satisfaction to my customers. For the benefit of those who have not been in the habit of doing business with me, I state that there is only one price for every article sold in my store, so that there is no danger of any person being overcharged for goods under any circumstances—in other words—a child can purchase goods in my store as cheap as the closest judge. I wish it distinctly understood that if any goods purchased in my establishment fail to come up to representation, they can be returned and the money will be refunded.
All consumers of dry goods are invited to call and examine my stock before purchasing elsewhere.
